

SISONS is a project of great interest for the Galician cultural sector and the northwest of the Iberian Peninsula, due to the quality of the proposals to be selected, the objective of its dissemination and the promotion of the joint interests of the music in Galician.

To this end, during the celebration of the fair/festival we will try to seek synergies with other entities to reach other audiences and strengthen communication from tourist, environmental, social and educational aspects, collaborating with other agents and other sensitivities with music and its values.

CALL FOR ARTISTS SISONS ENCLAVE MUSICAL 2022

SISONS invites artists from the music sector to participate in SISONS 2022. It is a meeting open to the public that will bring together professionals from the cultural and musical sector, will feature a multitude of talks, lectures, showcases, concerts and parallel activities. The main objective is the revitalization of cultural life and the promotion of musical and artistic activities.

The purpose of this public call is to invite musical proposals to be part of the selection process, which will allow them to participate in SISONS Enclave Musical 2022, and thus have the opportunity to make exchanges that enhance the circulation of their artistic works.

ABOUT THE ARTISTIC SHOWS

SISONS will schedule promotional presentations that will be 30 minutes long. The presentations will be made by the artists selected by the organization and will be aimed at programmers participating in the market and the general public.

Artists interested in participating in the promotional presentations should bear in mind that the organization will cover travel and living expenses in the amount of 600€ for artists or groups from the autonomous community of Galicia and 1000€ for those of national origin. The SISONS organization will provide these selected artists with the stage and appropriate technical equipment for the presentation.

Important: The evaluation of the participants for the artistic samples will be carried out through the audiovisual material of live performance provided by the artist, group or company in the registration form. Failure to receive such material will result in exclusion from this phase.

EVALUATION AND SELECTION OF PROPOSALS

The event organizers will appoint a jury made up of music industry experts with extensive experience, which will evaluate the proposals submitted and issue the list of selected groups or artists.

The evaluation criteria to be applied by the jury will be as follows:

- a) The first criterion to be evaluated will be the quality of the performance based on the media submitted, which will be included by means of the form.
- b) The second criterion will be the trajectory and experience of the candidate group or artist. This will take into account the awards, recognitions, successes achieved.
- c) Press reviews, reviews or participation in other fairs or festivals of relevance will also be taken into account.
- d) The jury under its experience will evaluate the projection of the proposal presented by the musical compositions.

Bid selection procedure:

1. The jury will select the best proposals of the call for proposals by means of a voting system.
2. Failure to comply with any of the mandatory requirements will result in the exclusion of the proposals submitted.
3. The results shall be recorded in a report signed by the members of the jury, which shall include the name of the proposal and the score achieved by each of the participants.
4. The list with the selected applicants will be published on July 22, 2022 on the web page www.sisons.gal
5. No appeal will be allowed against the results of the call for applications.
6. Registration for this call with the corresponding presentation of proposals is understood as the express authorization of the selected participant for the publication and exhibition of his/her products for strictly promotional purposes in the media considered appropriate by the SEASONS organization, without the participant being able to request any remuneration for such activities.
